	USE OF THE QUINEL TRADEMARK	rev 00

1. INTRODUCTION

Quinel does not carry out any activity that involves the supply of products/services of the certified type. Furthermore, the management of Quinel declares that it fulfills the conditions set out in Article 83(2) of Regulation (EU) 2017/1001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 on the European Union trade mark.

2. PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF APPLICATION

2.1. Purpose

This document establishes the rules for the use of the Quinel trademark which must be followed by a corporate organization that has obtained:

- a product/service certification;
- a management system certification;
- an inspection report;
- a test report.

These rules are considered accepted with the signing of the contract, in accordance with the provisions of the Certification, Inspection and Testing Regulations and upon obtaining certification from the Corporate Organization.

2.2. Scope of application

This regulation applies to all corporate organizations that have obtained a product/service or management system certification or an inspection or test report from Quinel.

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1. Authorized users to use the trademark

Only customers to whom Quinel has issued a product/service or management system certification or an inspection or test report are authorized to use the Quinel certification mark.

3.2. Products and services for which use of the Quinel trademark is permitted and methods of use

The customer can use the Quinel trademark for the following types of products/services and in the following ways:

TYPE OF CERTIFICATION ISSUED	METHODS OF USE
ISO/IEC 27001 Management Systems Certification www.accredia.it	The system conformity mark is used to manifest the conformity of the Management System with the UNI EN ISO 27001 standard. It must therefore not be affixed to the product or the packaging and in any case in such a way as to suggest its reference to the product. The System conformity mark must always be accompanied by the wording: Certified company UNI EN ISO 27001:20XX, certificate n°..... The packaging may be labeled as follows: Company with Information Security Management System certified according to UNI EN ISO 27001:XXXX
Product/service certification ISO/IEC 17065 www.accredia.it	The product conformity mark is used to demonstrate the conformity of the product with the requirements of the national gaming authorities which indicate the characteristics that the products to be placed on the market must have (e.g. Danish Gambling Authority, Swedish Gambling Authority, etc..) The mark can only be affixed to the technical documentation of the certified product or on the websites in the sections dedicated to the certified product.
Inspection report ISO/IEC 17020 www.nabmalta.org.mt	The use of the Quinel certification mark is permitted to customers who have obtained an inspection or test report issued by Quinel with reference to the products/services covered by the inspection/test report.
Test report ISO/IEC 17025 www.nabmalta.org.mt

It is prohibited to grant, assign or sublicense the aforementioned Logo/Trademark in whole or in part to third parties. This concession for the use of the Quinel Logo/Trademark is free for both parties: nothing will be owed to Quinel or to the applicant for its use in the manner indicated above.

The customer may not use in any form or manner any trademark other than that reported in these regulations, including reproduction on the World Wide Web, for purposes other than those specified above.

Under no circumstances will the Quinel brand be associated with initiatives or situations contrary to the principles established by its code of ethics or in violation of any law or regulation at any level of issue.

	REGULATION	RG 09
	USE OF THE QUINEL TRADEMARK	rev 00

However, Quinel reserves the right to revoke such authorization if it considers, in its sole discretion, that it may cause harm or damage to its good name and reputation on the market.

3.3. Checking the correct use of the Quinel trademark

Quinel carries out checks on the use of its brand by customers both during surveillance and/or renewal audits or through random checks of customers' websites, with respect to the requirements of this Regulation by customers.

In particular, Quinel verifies that no incorrect or misleading use of the trademark is made towards the recipients and that it is not used in a manner detrimental to the interests or image of Quinel.

If the customer makes incorrect use of the Quinel brand, he reserves the right to proceed with the suspension or revocation of the certification pursuant to the respective Certification Regulations available on the company website: www.quinel.com.mt.

The customer must immediately cease use of the brand and certificate as soon as he has received formal notification of a suspension or revocation measure from Quinel.

In the event that the use of the Quinel brand is not compliant with the provisions of this regulation by the customer and if Quinel is called upon to respond according to the principles of product liability, the applicant is obliged to indemnify Quinel from any third-party claims. This also applies in the event that Quinel is held accountable to third parties for advertising claims made by the customer.

3.4. Termination of the right to use the trademark

The right of the applicant to use the Quinel trademark and to bear the certificate shall cease with immediate effect, without the necessity of cancellation, if:

- The Company fails to immediately notify Quinel of changes that have occurred or are likely to occur in the situation of the company insofar as this is decisive for the certification;
- the certificate is misused;
- control audits show a result that does not justify maintaining the certificate (as per RG 02);
- a bankruptcy procedure has been opened against the Company's assets or a bankruptcy application made against it has been rejected for lack of assets;
- the consideration was not paid within the time limit set by Quinel;
- control audits cannot be carried out for reasons attributable to the Company;
- the certification or maintenance of the certificate is prohibited by administrative or judicial decision;
- the Company does not comply with the terms of the "Agreement" entered into with Quinel.

Upon termination of the right of use, the applicant is obliged to return the certificate to the Quinel certification office.
